Retirement Forms and Information

Necessary forms are included in this document and can also be accessed online (link to PPC forms web page below). Please complete the forms and worksheets legibly. We strongly recommend you fill them out online using the Adobe Acrobat program on the Coast Guard Standard Workstation. Completion of form CG-4700 is mandatory to establish your account so you can be paid on time. The completed form should be mailed to PPC (RAS) at least 30 days prior to date of retirement.

- <http://www.uscg.mil/ppc/forms>

Recalled to Active Duty?

Even though you are immediately recalled to active duty, with no break in service, your account must be established on the retired rolls. You are required to make an SBP election prior to your retirement date, and you must waive retired pay to receive active duty pay. Please do not delay sending in your retirement forms.

Common problems

One common problem is that the CG-4700 is not filled out completely nor witnessed on the same date as signed by member. Additionally, if you are married and a decline SBP or elect reduced SBP coverage, your spouse must concur with your election and acknowledge his/her concurrence on form CG-4700. Your spouse's signature must be notarized. Please review instructions carefully and check with your unit, SPO or PPC (RAS) if you need any assistance.

Your Health Record

Please make a copy of your Health Record before you retire. We often receive requests for copies of records. PPC (RAS) does not have your active duty records. They are broken down and distributed in accordance with COMDTINST M1080.10 (series), Military Personnel Data Records (PDR) System Manual.

If your beneficiary changes notify PPC (RAS) immediately.

Part V, Certification Data for Payment of Retired Personnel

This information is used to identify conditions that may affect your retired pay.

Note: Retirees, who go to work for a foreign government, or a company, educational institution, or other concern controlled/owned in whole or in part by a foreign government, forfeit their retired pay unless they obtain prior employment approval from the Departments of State and Homeland Security.

Part VI, Survivor Benefit Plan Election

The Survivor Benefit Plan will provide a monthly income for a retiree's survivors after his/her death. If a retiree does not elect SBP coverage, upon his/her death, survivors will not be entitled to any money from the Coast Guard other than unpaid retired pay.

Very Important - The retiree must elect whether to participate in SBP prior to actual retirement date. The retiree must also select which survivors will be covered. This also applies to personnel being immediately Recalled on the first date of retirement. Failure to submit the CG-4700 prior to first date eligible to receive retired pay will result in automatic maximum SBP coverage.

Detailed information required for making an SBP election can be obtained by attending a Military Pre-Retirement seminar or by reading Chapter 4 of this guide.

Chapter 3 – Survivor Benefit Plan

Survivor Benefit Plan Overview

Introduction

Upon a retiree's death, retired pay stops. The only way a retiree's survivor can receive any monthly annuity payment from the Coast Guard is if the retiree purchases coverage under the Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP).

This chapter will explain how the plan works, the options available, and the costs.

Note: FOR RESERVE RETIREES ONLY – If you elected options B or C under the Reserve Component Survivor Benefit Plan (RCSBP), this chapter does not apply to you. If you have questions concerning your RCSBP election, contact the Reserve Processing Team at 1-800-772-8724 extension 3412.

Chapter 3 – Survivor Benefit Plan

How SBP Works

Purpose of SBP	The purpose of the Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP) is to establish a benefit program to complement the survivor benefits of social security. The Plan provides retirees an opportunity to leave a portion of their retired pay to their survivors at a reasonable cost. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Without SBP, survivors of deceased retirees would not receive any money from the Coast Guard, with the exception of any final pay that may be paid to designated beneficiary.
Amount of retired pay insured	Under SBP you can choose how much of your retired pay you wish to insure. The part of your retired pay that you choose to insure is called the “Base Amount”. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The minimum base amount is $300. If your total gross retired pay is less than $300, then that becomes the minimum base amount.• The maximum base amount is your full retired pay. An exception to this rule is that, for a REDUX retiree (one who elected the $30,000 Career Status Bonus), the maximum base amount is the gross retired pay the member would have received had he/she NOT elected the Career Status Bonus.• Whenever retired pay is increased, the base amount is increased at the same time and percentage.
Amount paid to survivors	The amount that SBP pays to the survivor(s) that you have elected coverage for is called an “Annuity”. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The Annuity amount is 55% of the Base Amount for a surviving spouse.• The Annuity amount for children is 55% of the Base Amount (for as long as the child is eligible).

Coverage Available

Under SBP, every member with a spouse and/or dependent child(ren) on the first day of entitlement to retired pay will automatically participate in the Plan at the maximum level allowed under the law, unless:

- (1) The member submits a written election (on CG-4700) for reduced or no coverage; and
- (2) The member's spouse signs a written, notarized, statement (on CG-4700) concurring with the SBP election of reduced or no coverage.

A member who is not married or has no dependent child(ren) at the time of retirement, but who later marries or acquires a dependent child, may elect to participate in SBP at that time, provided the member's completed and signed election is received by PPC (RAS) within 1 year of marriage or acquiring that dependent child.

If there is no eligible spouse or child(ren) at the time of retirement, a member may elect to provide survivor protection to a person with an insurable interest.

Who you can provide coverage for

You may provide SBP coverage for:

- Spouse
 - ➤ The annuity would be paid to the spouse for life, unless the spouse remarries prior to age 55.
 - Spouse and Children
 - ➤ The spouse would be the primary beneficiary, and the children contingent beneficiaries.
 - Children only
 - ➤ Children can receive an annuity until age 18 (until age 22 if attending school on a full-time basis).
 - ➤ Permanently Incapacitated children may receive an annuity, a child must be certified by appropriate medical authority as incapable of self-support and that the incapacity occurred prior to age 18. Please indicate "yes" in Block 32 a. through d. Please call PPC (RAS) if you need assistance.
 - Former Spouse
 - Former Spouse and children you had with the former spouse.
 - Person with an Insurable Interest.
 - ➤ Parent, dependent or non-dependent child, other relative, business associate, etc..

Chapter 3 – Survivor Benefit Plan

Survivor Benefit Plan Automatic Coverage

No election at the time of retirement will result in automatic participation in SBP	Unless a member elects not to participate in SBP, or elects to participate at less than the maximum level before the first day on which he or she becomes entitled to retired pay, each member with a spouse and/or dependent child(ren) on the date of retirement will be enrolled in SBP automatically at the maximum level. Coverage will be based on the member's full gross retired pay (except in the case of a REDUX member, where coverage will be based on the gross retired pay the member would have received had he/she NOT elected the Career Status Bonus).
Spouse only	A member with a spouse only will be covered for that spouse at the maximum level.
Spouse and child(ren)	A member with a spouse and child(ren) will be covered for the spouse and child(ren) at the maximum level with the annuity payable to the spouse or in the event of the death or (if under age 55) remarriage of the spouse, to the eligible child(ren).
Child(ren) only	A member with child(ren) only will be covered for the child(ren) at the maximum level.

Chapter 3 – Survivor Benefit Plan

SBP Optional (Reduced or No) Coverage

General	Every member with a spouse and/or dependent child(ren) on the date of retirement, who does not desire coverage under the automatic provision of SBP, may elect reduced or no coverage.
Time requirement	Elections for optional coverage must be signed and submitted to PPC (RAS) prior to midnight on the member's last day of active duty. The member's signature and the spouse's, if there is a spouse must be provided on parts VII and IX of the Retired Pay Account Worksheet and Survivor Benefit Plan Election (CG-4700). Retired personnel being immediately Recalled must also make the SBP election by this deadline.
Spouse only coverage	A member with a spouse only on the date of retirement may elect to participate at a reduced level or may elect not to participate at all.
Spouse and child(ren) coverage	A member with a spouse and child(ren) on the date of retirement may elect to cover: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the spouse and child(ren) at a reduced level• the spouse only at the maximum level or at a reduced level• children only at the maximum level or at a reduced level or may elect not to participate at all.
Spouse notification/concurrence	Married members must obtain their spouse's concurrence on any decision not to enroll in SBP or to enroll at less than the maximum coverage available. The spouse's acknowledgment must be in writing and must be notarized. Space is provided on form CG-4700 for spousal notification and concurrence. If the member and spouse are not collocated, the member's commanding officer must send a letter of notification/concurrence to the member's spouse in accordance with section 3-B-23 (Checklist for Retirement) of the Pay and Personnel Procedures Manual, PPCINST M1000.2 (series).

Chapter 3 – Survivor Benefit Plan

SBP Insurable Interest Coverage

General

A member who is unmarried and does not have dependent children on the date of entitlement to retired pay may elect to provide an annuity for a person with an insurable interest in the member. As an exception, a member who is unmarried but who has a dependent child may provide coverage for that child under the insurable interest provision rather than an election for child.

Who may qualify as an Insurable Interest

Any person who can reasonably expect to receive some kind of financial benefit from the continuance of the life of the retired or retiring individual may be considered a Person with an Insurable Interest.

An insurable interest will be presumed to exist between the service member and parents, stepparents, grandchildren, aunts, uncles, sisters, brothers, half sisters, half brothers, nondependent children or stepchildren or any other person more closely related than cousins.

If the designation is other than one of the above, proof of financial benefit from the continuance of life of the member is required.

A person to whom a member is engaged to be married does not qualify as an insurable interest party on the relationship alone; the person must have a legal, documented, financial relationship with the member. This proof must be an affidavit from one or more persons attesting to the financial relationship between the member and the insurable interest party, which must be submitted along with a member's SBP election.

Election may be changed

If the retiree later acquires a spouse and/or dependent child(ren), the member may change the election to provide coverage for the spouse and/or child(ren), provided such election is received by PPC (RAS) with 1 year of acquisition of the spouse and/or child(ren).

When such change is made, the insurable interest person remains the eligible beneficiary until the spouse or child(ren) are eligible.

Chapter 3 – Survivor Benefit Plan

SBP Costs

Introduction

The cost for SBP coverage is deducted monthly from your retired pay.

- SBP costs reduce taxable retired pay. SBP annuities paid to survivors are taxable income.
 - SBP coverage is protected against inflation, as it is increased by any Cost-of-Living Adjustments (COLAs).
 - Monthly premiums increase with any COLAs.

Paid up Coverage Under Survivor Benefit Plan

Section 641, Public Law 105-261, allows collection of monthly SBP premiums from retired pay to stop when the member attains 70 years of age or 360 months (30 years) of premium payments whichever comes later.

- The first opportunity for paid up entitlements begins 1 October 2008.

Cost for Spouse or Former Spouse Coverage

As of 1 January 2008 this is the formula for calculating the costs of SBP coverage for a Spouse or Former Spouse of a member who entered the service prior to 1 March 1990.

- If the base amount is $1447 or more, cost is 6.5% of the base amount.
- If the base amount is $1446 or less, cost is 2.5% of the first $675, plus 10% of the remaining base amount.

Note: The above amounts (shown in bold print) are subject to change with every COLA adjustment.

Chapter 3 – Survivor Benefit Plan

SBP Costs, Continued

Cost for Spouse (or Former Spouse) and Children Coverage

There is a small additional charge to include coverage for children.

- The cost for the coverage is a percentage of the base amount.
- The percentage is determined according to the age of the member, the age of the spouse, and the age of the youngest child.
- When all children cease to be eligible for an annuity, the child cost terminates and only spouse cost continues.
- PPC (RAS) will automatically terminate the SBP child cost once the youngest child reaches age 22. A child whose 22nd birthday occurs before 1 July and after 1 August of a calendar year is considered, under the SBP law, to become 22 years of age on the first day of July after that birthday.
- Actuarial Tables are used to compute SBP cost when election is for spouse (or former spouse) and child coverage.
- Here is a sample of part of an actuarial table:

Member and spouse Age	Age of Youngest Child
	Age 5	Age 10	Age 15	Age 20
45	.00038	.00018	.00006	.00001
50	.00055	.00021	.00007	.00001
55	.00144	.00046	.00011	.00001
60	.00393	.00130	.00030	.00003

Example SBP Cost for Spouse and Children Coverage

In this example computation,

- the member has selected an SBP base amount of $1500
- the member is 45 years old
- the spouse is 45 years old
- the youngest child is 5 years old

Example SBP Cost Computation:

Computation for Spouse coverage: $$1500 \times .0650 = \97.50

Computation for Children coverage: $$1500 \times .00038 = \00.57

Total monthly SBP cost: $$98.07$

Annuity Payable @ 55% in the amount of $825.00

Chapter 3 – Survivor Benefit Plan

SBP Costs, Continued

Cost for Children Only Coverage

Members may elect coverage under SBP for children only. If the member has a spouse, the spouse must concur with an election for children only coverage.

- Cost is based on the age difference between the member and the member's youngest child.
- Actuarial tables are used to compute the costs.
- Here is a sample of part of an actuarial table:

Age of Member	Age of Youngest Child
	Age 5	Age 10	Age 15	Age 20
45	.0056	.0030	.0014	.0005
50	.0097	.0053	.0024	.0005
55	.0184	.0103	.0048	.0016
60	.0314	.0176	.0081	.0026

Example SBP Cost for Children only Coverage

In this example computation,

- the member has selected an SBP base amount of $1500
- the member is 45 years old
- the youngest child is 5 years old

Computation for Children only coverage: $$1500 \times .0056 = \8.40

Annuity payable @ 55% in the amount of $825.00

Cost for Insurable Interest Coverage

The monthly cost to provide an annuity to a person with an insurable interest is 10% of the member's full retired pay, plus an additional 5% for each full 5 years that the named beneficiary is younger than the retiree. The annuity will be 55% of the retired pay remaining after reduction of SBP costs from the base amount.

- The total cost may not exceed 40% of the member's retired pay.

Chapter 3 – Survivor Benefit Plan

SBP Election Regulations

Election is Irrevocable

Any election not to participate or to participate at a reduced base amount, if not rescinded or changed prior to the first date of entitlement to retired pay, is irrevocable.

If coverage is declined for a spouse at the time of retirement, this decision is irrevocable and coverage for your spouse (that spouse or a future spouse) cannot be provided at a later point.

Note: The only exception to this rule is the opportunity in the event of an SBP Open Season.

A decision not to participate or to participate at a reduced base amount, should be reviewed very carefully.

Members with no spouse or eligible children at time of retirement

A member who has no spouse and/or child(ren) on the date of retirement, but who later acquires a spouse and/or child(ren), may elect to participate in the plan.

The election to participate must be done within one year of the date of marriage, in the case of a spouse, or the date of birth or adoption, in case of children.

Situations when an election can be changed or revoked

These elections may be changed or revoked after the award of retired pay.

- Opportunity to terminate SBP coverage: Section 641, Public Law 105-85 provides for a one-year period, beginning two years after commencement of retired pay, during which SBP participants may choose to discontinue participation in the plan. Written concurrence of the spouse is required. Once participation is discontinued under these provisions, no benefits under SBP may be paid, and no refund of any premiums properly collected shall be made.
 - If a member elected to provide coverage for an insurable interest that election may be changed to cover a newly acquired spouse or child(ren).

Chapter 3 – Survivor Benefit Plan

SBP Election Regulations, Continued

Situations when an election can be changed or revoked

- If a member who was unmarried at date of retirement elected to provide coverage for dependent child(ren), the election may be changed to cover a spouse and child(ren) should the member subsequently marry. Election must be made within one year of the date of marriage.
 - A member may discontinue coverage for dependent child(ren) because of ineligibility of all children for an annuity.
 - Elections made by Commandant (CG-1222) on behalf of a member declared incompetent may be changed or revoked by the member within 180 days after he or she has been determined to be competent.
- Members who have spouse coverage who lose their spouse due to divorce or death have their SBP coverage suspended and cost terminated. If the member later remarries, the member has three options, which he/she can exercise within one year of remarriage:
 - 1) Resume coverage at same level as the member had for the first spouse.
 - 2) Increase coverage up to the maximum level
(This option requires the member to pay the difference between the SBP costs incurred and the costs that would have been incurred if the new level of participation had been elected originally).
 - 3) Elect not to have the spouse portion of coverage resumed
(This option will require PPC (RAS) to notify the new spouse of the member's election).

Procedure for changing or revoking an election after effective date of retirement

Only those changes or revocations listed above may be accomplished after the date of retirement.

- You must notify PPC (RAS) in writing of your desire to change coverage.
 - PPC (RAS) will review your request and mail you the appropriate forms and instructions to effect the change in coverage.

Chapter 3 – Survivor Benefit Plan

SBP Election Procedures

Election during retirement process

SBP election during the retirement process is made by completing Parts VI and VII of the Coast Guard & NOAA Retired Pay Account Worksheet and Survivor Benefit Plan Election (CG-4700).

- The instructions for completing the form are contained in Chapter 2 of this guide.
- Part VI of the form must be completed by all members, whether they are married or not.
- The form must be completed and returned to PPC (RAS) prior to the effective date of retirement for the SBP election to be effected. Otherwise, for members with a spouse and/or child(ren), the automatic coverage provisions of SBP will take effect.
- The member's spouse must complete part VII if the member did not elect to participate at the maximum level. This section must be notarized. If the member and spouse are not collocated, the member's commanding officer must send a letter of notification/concurrence to the member's spouse in accordance with section 3-B-23 (Checklist for Retirement) of the Pay and Personnel Procedures Manual, PPCINST M1000.2 (series).

Changing or revoking an election prior to retirement

A retiree who submits an SBP election in conjunction with retirement who changes his/her mind prior to the actual retirement date must follow the following procedure:

- Submit a new CG-4700 to PPC (RAS) prior to the effective date of retirement.
- Annotate Parts VI and VII with this statement:
“THIS ELECTION REVOKES PREVIOUS ELECTION”
- The new election will be accepted by PPC (RAS) only if it is received or is postmarked prior to the member's date of retirement.

Note: This does not pertain to Reservist that previously elected option B or C.

RCSBP Information for Reserve Personnel

Information for reservists who are between 20-years satisfactory service and reaching age 60

If you have no spouse or children at the 20-year point, and later acquire a spouse and/or children you may elect to enroll your new beneficiaries in the RCSBP. You must request enrollment by completing a CG-11221, Reserve Component Survivor Benefit Plan (RCSBP) Option - Election Certificate (http://www.uscg.mil/forms/cg/cg_11221.pdf), within one year of obtaining a spouse and/or child. A copy of the marriage and/or birth certificate must accompany request.

If you elect spouse coverage under Option B or C, and your spouse dies, you may suspend your RCSBP spouse coverage. You must notify us and provide a copy of the death certificate. If you elected coverage for both spouse and children, your RCSBP child coverage would continue.

If you elect spouse coverage under Option B or C, and later divorce, you have the following rights:

- You may suspend your RCSBP spouse coverage by providing a copy of your divorce decree.
- You may voluntarily elect to cover your former spouse under the RCSBP. Submit a written request, with a copy of your divorce decree.

If you remarry after losing your RCSBP spouse beneficiary, you have the following rights within one year of your remarriage:

- Provide the same RCSBP coverage you had for your previous spouse.
- Terminate your RCSBP spouse coverage.
- Increase your RCSBP Base amount up to full retired pay. (Additional costs will apply.)
- Elect Supplemental RCSBP (at additional cost).

NOTE: The opportunity to make any changes to your RCSBP election must be made within one year of your remarriage by written notification to us at the address provided below.

Chapter 3 – Survivor Benefit Plan

Common Questions About SBP

Q: I understand my retired pay stops when I die. However, my spouse will be eligible for other Government benefits from the VA and Social Security Administration, right?

A: Your spouse could be entitled to a benefit called Dependency and Indemnity Compensation (DIC) from the VA. However, DIC is only payable if your death is found to be "service connected". A surviving spouse can also get social security survivor benefits if the spouse is over age 59, or if you have minor children. However, if you turn down SBP and you die from a non-service connected cause, and you don't have any minor children, your spouse will be without any Government benefits until reaching age 60.

Q: Does my spouse lose SBP if she or he remarries after I die?

A: If your spouse remarries before age 55, the monthly SBP annuity will be stopped. If this remarriage terminates, the annuity restarts.

Q: Does my spouse have any say in what SBP decision I make?

A: A spouse sure does. If you don't elect full coverage, your spouse must be notified and must sign a notarized statement agreeing to your election of no coverage or reduced coverage. If your spouse doesn't agree or doesn't sign the statement, you are put on automatic full SBP coverage.

Q: What are some of the differences between SBP and life insurance?

A: (1) SBP has no cash value, whereas whole life insurance has a cash value and can be borrowed against.
(2) SBP is government-subsidized.
(3) SBP annuities rise with inflation, but insurance policies don't.
(4) SBP premiums are exempt from taxes, whereas insurance premiums are not exempt. SBP annuities paid out are taxable income, whereas insurance proceeds generally are not taxable. SBP coverage cannot be denied due to your age or health, whereas insurance coverage can be.

Q: What are probably the most important factors in making an SBP decision?

A: Your health and that of your spouse, your family longevity and that of your spouse, the difference between you and your spouse's age, and your private financial planning (commercial insurance, etc.).

Chapter 3 – Survivor Benefit Plan

Common Questions About SBP, Continued

Q: Is my SBP decision irrevocable?

A: Yes, with the following exceptions.

(1) For future retirees, the window to discontinue SBP will open on the second anniversary after the retired member begins to receive retired pay, and will close on the third anniversary date. Retirees may not elect to discontinue participation without the written concurrence of the spouse, and participants who elect to withdraw will not be entitled to a refund of premiums.

(2) There have been open enrollment seasons once about every 10 years since SBP was adopted in 1972, whereby a retiree could come into the program. However, the costs to come in during open season were much higher based on the retiree's age and how many years the retiree had been retired.

Q: Are there any cases where I should consider SBP an extremely good buy?

A: Yes, in the case of an incapacitated child. If you have a mentally or physically permanently handicapped child, SBP provides excellent protection at little cost. The child must meet service-specific requirements. Contact the PPC (RAS) DEERS desk for application procedures and requirements.

Q: If I buy SBP coverage for my four children, do they each receive an annuity of 55 percent of my SBP base amount?

A: No, the annuity will be equally divided among your four children. When the oldest child reaches majority age, it would be divided into thirds, etc., etc.

Q: Is there a down side to purchasing SBP coverage for both my spouse and children?

A: One down side might be that the children will only be eligible for an annuity if you have no surviving spouse and your children are still under age 18 - thus you may end up paying for coverage that won't reap benefits. However, remember that child costs are very inexpensive.

Q: When do my children become ineligible under SBP?

A: At age 18, or if they attend an institution of higher learning full-time, at age 22.

Chapter 3 – Survivor Benefit Plan

Q: I know that SBP stops if my spouse remarries before age 55. Are there any other instances where SBP is reduced or stopped?

A: Yes, if your spouse becomes qualified for Dependency and Indemnity Compensation (DIC) from the VA (a tax-free benefit) due to your service connected death, then the SBP annuity is reduced dollar-for-dollar. For example, if your spouse's SBP annuity was $1,000 per month and your spouse is awarded $850 DIC per month, the SBP annuity is reduced to $150 per month. HOWEVER, a partial or full refund of the SBP costs you have paid will be provided to your spouse.

Q: What about dependents I acquire after I retire - can I cover them under SBP?

A: It really depends on your status at retirement. If you have a spouse at retirement, and elect not to cover your spouse under SBP, you would be precluded from electing SBP coverage for a new spouse acquired after retirement, unless there was an SBP open enrollment season. On the same hand, if you have eligible children at retirement, but don't elect SBP child coverage, you would be precluded from electing coverage for children you acquire after retirement, unless there was an SBP open enrollment season. If you have no dependents at retirement, then later acquire dependents, you have one year to request SBP coverage for these dependents.

Q: Just how important is the COLA protection of SBP?

A: Extremely. SBP annuities, for instance, increased 296% between 1972 and 1988 - an annuity that was $500 in 1972 was $1,483 in 1988.

Another good example of the COLA protection would be SGLI. In 1972, SGLI coverage was $15,000. In 2007, SGLI coverage is $400,000. Just think, at this rate, 35 years from now, SGLI would have to be worth $10 million!

Be sure to remember the COLA features of SBP when your insurance salesman presents information about purchasing a life insurance policy.

Q: Once I elect SBP, what responsibilities do I have after I retire?

A: To notify PPC if your family status changes. If your spouse or child dies, you divorce, your child marries or reaches age 18, immediately notify PPC so we can stop the SBP deductions from your pay.
